THE GIANTS LOSE TWO. They Refuse to Play in the Last of the Ninth. Louisville, July 16 .- The Giants lost two games to the Colonels today, the second one owing to the umpire's decisions, as Joyce claims, though as a matter of fact it was Joyce's poor judgment, coupled with the fact that he and all his men surrounded the umpire, allowing Pickering to sten home with the winning run. Several fights were narrowly averted and the bleachers rushed on the field when Park Wilson lost Fraser sent a slow one toward Joyce.

Joyce thought it would roll foul and did not field it, Wilson scoring on the play. Sullivan sent McCreery to first on balls, Given a Brief Season of Rest at Joyce lost his head. He sent Sullivan to the bench and called for Rusie. Sulli-van protested Rusie had no warming-up practice, and was all out of humor.

The first ball Rusie pitched McCreery sent to right field for two sacks, scoring Hock and Fraser. Pickering took advantage of Rusie's lack of control and walked to first, filling the bases. Rusie had terrific speed and was using it as his only hope. He struck Stafford out. Werden was hit on the shoulder, forcing Fred Clarke home, Johnson sent a high fly to Davis. Two men were out and one run was necessary to tie the score

Wilson was at bat. Two balls wer called on him, and Joyce was protesting swearing, dancing. They were balls, too, but Joyce, Rusle, and all the Giants were One strike, three balls, and Joyce was black in the face. Four balls and McCreery walked home, tieing the score. Hock was next at hat. Park Wilson struck Hock. Hock raised his bat to strike, but was prevented.

The bleachers, police and all were rush-ing toward the plate, and Pickering stole home from third, making the winning ron during the excitement. The score:

Apart from Ten Eyck's tactics, and his supposed professionalism, it is admitted that he is a fine scaller, and his pernce in the final heat was adjudged excellent.

TO MAKE A BECORD.

Gallant Effort of a Young Officer With a Bievele.

An attempt to establish a road record etween New York and Washington was begun Thursday night by Lieut. H. D. Wise, F. S. A., stationed at Governor's Island. He will be paced all along his route by relays of cyclists. At Baltimore he will be mit by a delegation of Joenl riders, and accompanied as far as Washington. During the first portion of his rong trip he will be paced by a Lieut. Wise will be remembered as naving established the record between Pough keepsic and Governor's Island. He is a young infantry officer, who has atdistance rides. His last record trip wa finished by exchanging his bicycle for a edwerele, and upon that he cromed the ferry to Governor's Island. The feat he is attempting now is one involving the greatest amount of endurance and brawn.
